

Session 7

time to Look For Pizza

- I ask Tyr where Gwens house is.
- we try to find it,

a Glow Beetle talks to Quelenna on our approach to her house

- calls Gwen a horrible witch
- says Gwen has brought Fey here before
- tells her not to let us bring Folk then her.
- Dog did not see Quelenna

Gwens hut IS in disrepair, for some reason

- well kept house, other one room in total disuse
- Dusty Fingerprints on a Chale in storage.
- also no insects or other small creatures

- the party (not me) decides to go inside

- Blood, old and dried on the axe.

- the door is magic, and there was gold foil in the jamb.

- Door is Locked
- Stien picks it.

- Henloch opens it.

as they go in, Quelenna is in actual pain from being inside the chest contains a lot of elvish stuff, including a Vyne Sash.

no Sign of Dizza. I use mending to repair the Foil.

no Body

Sten and Hemlock explore the house

the house is full of white hair?
what the heck?

- Gem

- heart of the Sea, to Gothen, and supposedly part of the source of the Ocean

- Belis

- cold iron, anti Fey.

- there is a down stairs.

With this a dead end, Sten remembers seeing Gwen leaving the ship late last night

We go to search the Boat

the crabs are talking about "how sad it is they treat each other"

- we find an almost dead Robold hanging almost in the water.
- wrapped in white twine

Hemlock Pulls Dizza out of the water and I Barely manage to revive them.

- Gwen is onto us.

- tyr and the Dwarf take Dizza back to one of their places.

- after hours of medical care, I manage to get Pizza aware

we go to the Bar, eat,

I go out to play some cards,

Everyone is falling asleep.

Green moves to talk to me explaining that she doesn't want us poking around.

She made sure we had a short contract. So that we would be out of here soon along with some other things.

Uneasy ending of the night